Dear

STAT

I wish to express to you my sincere appreciation for showing members of my staff through the missile assembly and storage facilities of [redacted] You were most kind in personally conducting the tour and giving so freely of your time. My men have reported that you quickly sensed the type of information they were seeking and that they benefited greatly from your explanations of the external configurations of the facilities and the references for obtaining aerial photography of the installation.

Thank you again for your most generous cooperation.

Sincerely,

Arthur C. Lundahl
Director
